Miss H. L. Walridge, of 1307 Hynes street became quite ill last Sunday night while attending services at church. She was carried home where Dr. A. M. Townsend was called and she was soon much better.NATIONAL SESSION ALLEN CHRIS-TIAN ENDEAVOR LEAGUE TO MEET HERE.The Society was Organized in 1900—Mass Meeting at St. John Wednesday Night, January 23—Five Thousand and Delegates Expected to Attend the Gathering which Convenes in July.

What will be one of the most important meetings as regards scope and national character, is the first session of the Allen Christian Endeavor League, that will convene here some time during the month of July. This society was organized in 1900 by Mr.
B. W. Arnett, Jr., son of the late Bishop B. W. Arnett (of the A. M. E.
Church). It is fashioned after the style of the societies for the young people in most of the church denominations the effort being to foster a spirit of love for church work among the juvenile departments. The convention will be held at the St. John A. M. E. Church, on the corner of Eighth avenue, North, and Cedar street, and the pastor, Dr.
T. W. Haigler, who is also the State Superintendent, is rallying his forces to prepare for the reception of the meeting. Great stress is being laid on this session as it is initiatory, and the general secretary, Rev. Elias J.
Gregg, of Jacksonville, Fla., is making strenuous efforts to attain success.
Delegates will be here from every state in the Union, and from West and South Africa, as well as the East and West Indies. A mass meeting will be held at St. John A. M. E. Church on next Wednesday night which will be participated in by all the African Methodist churches in the city and vicinity.
The general secretary, Dr. Gregg, will be present to participate in the meeting, and it is thought that several of the Bishops and general officers will be here also. Attempt will be made on Wednesday night to appoint a committee to arrange for the reception and entertainment of the delegates.

It is the opinion of those in position to best estimate, that fully five thousand delegates will attend, and homes will have to be provided for them. The board rate has been fixed at $1.00 per day, so Nashville, according to estimates will be over $25,000 richer by having entertained these delegates. Dr. Haigler, in speaking of the meeting, said that it would not be only an African Methodist affair, but it would be more a race affair, as it would be impossible for the African Methodists to entertain the numbers that are expected. He said the home committee would be instructed to secure home wherever possible and to secure the best.

A mass meeting was held last Sunday at Salem Chapel A. M. E. Church, and a great deal of interest was manifested despite the fact that it rained the best part of the afternoon. This meeting was under the auspices of the local league, of which Rev. Wm. Flagg, pastor of the Payne Chapel A. M. E.
Church, is president; Miss Mattie B.
Topp, secretary, and Miss Lizzie Dickerson, treasurer. The league consists of all the churches in the city and vicinity.

At the meeting to be held at St.
John A. M. E. Church, on Wednesday night, January 23, each league is to be represented by delegates, and the churches that have no league will send representatives also. Those behind the meeting express themselves as desirous of a general awakening among all of the churches.

Dr. Welch, the presiding elder of the district, was seen by a Globe reporter and he said he was very much encouraged as to the outlook, and believed that a great meeting would be and that much good would be accomplished. It was through the efforts of Dr. Welch that Nashville secured this convention. He was at the session of the Bishops' Council in Washington.
D. C., last July, and presented the claims of Nashville, and was successful in his efforts, although Atlanta and other cities made strong bids.

SMYRNA NOTES.

Mrs. Ellen C. Elliott, of Hot Springs, Ark., proprietress of the Elliott Flat, arrived last Thursday to spend a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs.
A. L. Perry.

The new officers of the Mt. Zion Baptist Sunday School are Miss Mabel Brown, Secretary; Mrs. M. C. Wade, Assistant Secretary, and R. L. Perry, Treasurer.

All the officers of the Sand Hill Union Sunday School were re-elected.
Since its organization it has been using the National Baptist literature, introduced by R. L. Perry, without any complaint whatever; but now this school has decided to use literature of the Methodist denomination. We thank the National Baptist Publishing Board for their kindness and the assistance rendered us during the three years past.

Mr. J. W. Tucker has returned with his bride, and is now working at home.
Mrs. A. L. Field and daughter, Lin-die, of Bowling Green, Ky., are busily engaged entertaining and visiting friends, as they will soon leave for their home.

PIECE OF JAW-BONE REMOVED.

To say that the young men of the city, in the professions, are ever on the alert and can cope with any in their line of business was made evident a few days ago when Dr. Robert Woodson, the popular dentist on the East Side, performed a most difficult operation. Dr. Woodson, on last Monday, had a patient whose jaw-bone was broken in some way. He administered the necessary anesthetic, performed the operation and removed a piece of the bone. The patient is doing nicely and is on the road to recovery.

Dr. Woodson is a product of Meharry Medical College and one of Nashville's own sons. This is one of the many difficult cases that have passed successfully under his careful attention.

VICTORIA CLARK GETS CLEM-ENCY.

Just before going out of office as the Governor of the State of Tennessee, Hon. John I. Cox seems to have had "a warm spot" in his heart for the unfortunate prisoners—no small number figured in his list for executive clemency. Among the last to be favored was Victoria Clark, Davidson County, under a fifteen-year sentence charged with the murder of Ed. Lewis, in July, 1905. Her sentence was commuted to four years upon recommendation of the Advisory Board and many prominent citizens.

MRS. MAGNOLIA BYRDSOING AT THE BLIND SCHOOL.

Too much cannot be said of the exquisite manner in which Mrs. Byrd-song entertained those present. Every number was executed with that skill which marks all of her performances.
The faculty and pupils were highly pleased. The following is the program:

Phantasticks—R. Schumann, Op. 12.
Face to Face—Herbert Johnson.
The Hyacinth—Lyon Hatch.
Sing Me to Sleep—Edwin Green.
Rustle of Spring—Christian Sinding, Op. 32, No. 3.
A Rose—Syble Straymore.
Polka Caprice—W. E. MacClymont.
Your Best Friend is Your Mother—W. A. Cranse.

Les Sylphes—C. Bachmann.
The Lost Chord—Arthur Sullivan.
Dance of Demons—Holtz.
Some Day When Dreams Come True
—Phil Stoats.

O Thou Sublime! Sweet Evening Star—Frank Litz.
Goodbye, Sweetheart, Goodbye—Albert Von Tilzer.

DOWN IN SAVANNAH, GA.

Tidings from the state of Georgia, seem to indicate that the ministers from Nashville, regardless of the denomination, are holding their own.
Dr. C. H. Clark left a week ago for Savannah to conduct a revival for Dr.
Carr. The following letter will show that the Lord is blessing his work:

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 14, 1907.
Mr. H. A. Boyd:
Dear Brother:—The Lord is in this place. I arrived on time Thursday morning, found Dr. Carr awaiting my arrival. I preached Thursday night to a crowded house and had five converts. Friday night we had nine, and nine Sunday morning, and Sunday night we had eighteen conversions.
These were all men but five; two of the five being women, and three children. There has been forty-four additions to the church since I arrived, the average being about 14 converts a day. The city is stirred. I spoke to the city ministers this morning for one hour, and the Lord blessed my talk. God bless you and yours. Love to all. I am as ever,

Yours in Christ,
C. H. CLARK.

A PUBLIC DISGRACE.

Harrison street, which begins at Third avenue and runs to Twelfth, has become one of the principal thoroughfares of the city and just why it is the worst kept is a question the people of Nashville would like to know. Cabs are as numerous on Harrison, as they are in the spring time in the clay bottoms, where crawfish frequent. If you are the least sleepy and drive from Third avenue, North, to Twelfth on this street, you will find that the rocking of your vehicle will put you in dreamland, and yet the powers that be cannot see that this street needs attention. Election time is coming, and they maybe this street will receive some attention.
